

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Maritime Vietnam 2009 a premier international maritime event

More than 70% of booth space has been taken up

Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam, 1 September 2008– Maritime Vietnam 2009, the premier international maritime event, will showcase the latest innovations on ship building, ship repair, shipping, offshore engineering & technology, ports & logistics for Vietnam's buoyant maritime industry.

To be held at the Saigon Exhibition & Convention Centre on 25-27 February 2009, the event will feature some 350 companies from some 20 countries and regions. At this point in time, more than 70% booth space has been reserved.

This international maritime event offers a new level of business platform for both local and foreign industry leaders to interact with each other, allowing possible business partnerships and technology transfer to take place. Maritime Vietnam presents the most innovative products and services available in the global maritime market from the leading industry players.

Featuring industry players from various sectors, exhibitors will come from shipbuilding sector, oil & gas and port & logistics industries from different countries and regions such as Holland, Singapore, Germany, United Kingdom, Korea, and Norway.

A major conference focusing on ship finance, ports & logistics and shipbuilding is also planned alongside the exhibition. Relevant industry leaders around the world will be invited to share their knowledge and overview on the current market scenarios of the maritime sector.

Working with relevant industry bodies and industry associations such as the Ministry of Transport Vietnam; Vietnam Sea Port Association; Vinalines; Vinamarine and Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers Singapore, Maritime Vietnam 2009 will definitely bring value to the maritime industry in Vietnam as the platform where buyers and sellers meet.
